Statement	Most important aspect of the business is understanding customer's needs. ZORALab team was highly responsive, understands our needs and promptly reacted with detailed plans, strategy and recommendations. They studied the market well to recommend what's relevant or not and most importantly what's applicable for the customer. I engaged them for a small task, but the effort they put into it are just as professional and detailed as any huge corporate work (from my experience dealing with corporate agencies) Turnaround time was awesomely fast. I am very very satisfied with the service. Will recommend to all my business contacts, friends and family too. Keep up the goodwork ZORALab. Once again you all exceeded my expectations .
